

Dunes Run 2026

Over the Presidents Day holiday weekend Tierra del Sol Four Wheel Drive Club will once again traverse the Desierto de Altar in Sonora, Mexico. It is the largest patch of sand in North America and provides challenges to navigation and communication. As a four wheel drive run it is unique since there is no "trail" to follow. Day one starts at the Small Cross in the dunes at the end of a sand road. Travel is East toward the Sikes crater in the Pinacate Volcano park. Guests are welcome and stock vehicles are OK.
